

The Early Vancouver Transcription Project is a project of the Global Civic Policy Society and its President, Sam Sullivan, former Vancouver Mayor. We hope this will stimulate a greater interest in the beginnings of the City of Vancouver and will benefit those who are researching to gain a better understanding of our history. Although we have done our best to ensure accuracy, the original documents are faded and in handwriting that is difficult to read.

The transcription of this Vancouver City Council Meeting was made by Margaret Sutherland and Joy Marie Vasquez and was funded through the generosity of Sam Sullivan.

Vancouver March 24th 1888

A Special meeting of the City Council was called for Saturday March 24th 1888 to take into consideration the proposed loan By-Law and the striking of the rate of taxation for the current year.

Present His Worship Mayor Oppenheimer, Aldermen Bell-Irving, Clark, Couth, Dougall, Humphries, Lefevre, Mannion, and Oppenheimer.

His Worship the Mayor explained the object of the meeting and after considerable discussion it was moved by Alderman Bell-Irving seconded by Alderman Clark. That further discussion of the loan By-Law and rate to be struck, be postponed until Monday next so as to enable the Chairman of the Finance Committee to be present. Carried.

The meeting then adjourned.

D. Oppenheimer, Mayor

Thos. F. McGuigan, City Clerk
