Whereas the trade and Commerce of Vancouver is increasing so rapidly and to such an extent and the growth of False Creek is becoming such a manufacturing centre as to cause steamers to ply to and fro in these waters:

And whereas the C. P. R. Co. has built a bridge across False Creek which offers a serious obstruction to the passage of steamers and sailing vessels,

Therefore be it resolved that the Dominion Government be communicated with asking them to cause the C. P. R. Co. to have this obstruction removed, or have a draw span inserted in same bridge.

Carried.

Ald. Carrall moved }
