

JUDY GRAVES

HOMELESS ADVOCATE

Judy Graves created the Homeless Outreach Project which connects people who are homeless to housing, community services and income assistance. In the program's first 2 years more than 700 people found housing. The homeless outreach project is found in 50 communities across the province. In the spring of 2013 Judy Graves retired from the city of Vancouver where she was the homeless advocate for 20 years.

Judy was awarded an Honorary Doctorate from UBC in 2009 and a Doctor of Divinity from the Vancouver School of Theology in 2013, Freedom of the city in 2014 and an honorary Doctorate Degree from SFU in June 2015.

vancouver.ca/your-government/judy-graves.aspx